7 Is there a weight restriction on the airplane?

The charter aircraft are small and cannot carry a great deal of luggage. So we ask that you restrict personal gear to 50 lbs or less. Size of the packages should also be reasonable. Do not bring oversize packs or you may be faced to leave them behind. Oversize loads such as one piece fishing rods can get broken, so please select your fishing gear with that in mind. We have a variety of fishing rods and tackle at the lodge if you break or forget to bring your own.

8 What should I bring?

Things you might want to bring are:

- A good quality rain suit
- Waterproof footwear
- Quality polarized sunglasses (to see the fish with)
- Down vest, turtleneck or chamois shirts
- Windbreaker or medium jacket (for early spring or fall)
- Bug or screen jacket or hat (for early season)
- Wool socks
- Waterproof gloves
- Dry bag for the boat in case of inclement weather
- Vital medications
- Passports (if crossing into and out of Canada)
- Toiletries
- Insect Repellent and Sun block
- Camera, film, video camera, batteries
- Shorts
- Long sleeved shirts
- Long pants
- Hat
- Fishing Tackle
- Fishing Reels
- Fishing Rods (we have rods at the lodge)
- Old tennis shoes (for wading)
- Neoprene waders (optional)
- Portable fish finders (optional)

It is best to dress in layers, as the sun warms the lake and land it is good to peel off the outer layers. Temperature and wind conditions can vary greatly so “be prepared” and bring good quality warm clothing and protection from the insects and sun.

9. Can I bring my own alcohol?

You may bring your own alcohol, but due to our liquor license regulations, your own alcohol cannot be consumed on the main floor of the lodge, in the dining room, patio deck or the lounges. You may consume your own alcohol in your room or cabin.

Please remember, the charter aircraft are small and cannot carry a great deal of luggage. Liquids are heavy so please restrict them. Pack wisely and remember we have water and refreshments including wine, beer and liquor for sale at the lodge for you.
